

Curriculum Vitae

Mészáros Csaba István

Language competencies: English, German, Russian, Sakha, Mongol

Scientific degree: PhD

Fields of interest: Ontological anthropology, Environmental perception, Ecological anthropology, Epistemology, Kinship, Siberian studies. History of Ethnology

Education

2000 Mongol State University, Ulaanbaatar

2002–2004 Yakutsk State University, Yakutsk

2004 Institute of the Problems of Numerically Small Northern Minorities, Yakutsk

2006 Ethnographer, orientalist M.A. degree (ELTE BTK)

2011 PhD (summa cum laude) ELTE BTK

Teaching experiences

Balassi Institute of Hungarian Studies: lecturer

ELTE, PTE, DTE, KRE, BBTE: guest lecturer

Participation in research projects

2017 ÖAD Stiftung „Representations of Indigenous Peoples of the Asian Peripheries of the Russian Empire (Northern and Inner Asia) in the Legacies of Travelers from Austro-Hungary“ (Principal investigator)

SNN 126230 Protected Areas along the Slovenian-Hungarian Border: Challenges of Cooperation and Sustainable Development. (Principal investigator)

OTKA K 81267 Symbolic landscapes and ethnic relations in Russia.

OTKA NK 84283 An examination of triple borders in the south-western, south-eastern. and north-eastern regions of Hungary.

International Arctic Science Committee; International Permafrost Association; Permafrost and Culture Action Group.

Ethnoecology “Momentum” Research Program

Memberships, ranks

Hungarian Ethnographical Society, Branch of ethnology, secretary

Hungarian Cultural Anthropological Association, vice-president

Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Committee of Ethnography, member

Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Cultural Anthropology Working Committee, member

European Association of Social Anthropologists

History of Anthropology Network

Folklore Fellows